15 Reasons Why Auto Club Loyalty® Travel Accident Insurance Is a Great Choice

Reason #8. The Statistics.

Statistics in America is hospitalized about every 5 seconds for an accident like this one! Anyone, or that is worse. About every 15 minutes someone is killed in an automobile accident. In fact, motor vehicle deaths are the leading cause of "unintentional injury" accidental death for Americans under the age of 74, and the second leading cause under age 85!

Reason #9. Benefits Are Paid Directly to You (or Your Beneficiary)

You or your beneficiary get the cash payment directly so you can use the money however you like. And you get the full benefit amount, regardless of any other payments you get from health, life, disability or auto insurance, legal action, or any other source.

Reason #10. As an Auto Club Member, Your Acceptance Is Guaranteed.

There are no medical exams, no tests, nor even any health questions. It doesn't matter how old you are, as long as you're 18 or over! If you have pre-existing conditions, that's even if you smoke. There are no waiting periods either – you're covered the day one. Just complete, sign, and return the Acceptance Form, choose your method of payment, and once we've approved, you have peace of mind!

Reason #11. You Can Take Advantage of Auto Club Group Rates.

Those group prices come with the buying power of over 45 million AAA members. In fact, if you're age 18-69, the cost for Auto Club Loyalty® Travel Accident Insurance is only $10 a month. That's less than 33¢ a day. It's just a few dollars more for ages 70 and up. (See our Insured Premium Chart for rates.)

Reason #12. You Can Cover Your Family for Just a Few Dollars More.

As an Auto Club member, you can cover your family for as little as $4 more per month. (See Premium Chart for details.) There's no preexisting rider for each eligible member of your family! And the family must also belong to be Auto Club members.

Reason #13. 31-Day Risk-Free Trial – While You're Covered!

Your coverage will be in effect with your payment is received and processed. When you get your Certificate of Insurance, look it over. Show it to any trusted advisors you may have. If you decide the accident insurance is not for you, cancel during the 31-day trial period simply by writing "Cancel" on the date and mailing back the Certificate. We'll cancel your coverage from the start and give you a 100% refund of the payments you've paid.

Reason #14. A Name You Trust

AAA Life Insurance Company was founded on the same principles as AAA itself—to provide good, honest service to the benefit of our members. AAA Life now has over $163.6 billion of life insurance in force and was rated A (Excellent) by A.M. Best, the leading insurance rating company, as of May 2013. That's the seventh highest ranking out of 16.

Reason #15. Your Loved Ones.

By comparison, death is not one of the top 10 causes of death. It's totally unexpected, and it can devastate your family. This simple, affordable protection can make a tough time much easier.

Complete, sign and return your Acceptance Form today!

5 4. Problems uncovered by PDF FTS in leading PDF products

Here is one example of a real set of problems uncovered by a PDF FTS test case. This test case is a PDF graphic state parameter test which uses different fonts/sizes. One would expect this test to be a very simple test case but please note all of the different bugs that was uncovered by this PDF FTS test case including Adobe's Acrobat 8 Professional product. This problem is one of many other issues we have observed using the PDF FTS product on leading PDF products.

This is the top line

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I'd like to test it, just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both:

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page, fax to 1-855-330-1239 (a toll-free number in the United States). When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax.To — it's a fast web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero, this site lets you send faxes for free to any place in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

Demonstrating Electron Transfer and Nanotechnology: A Natural Dye-Sensitized Nanocrystalline Energy Converter

[illegible]

Michael Grätzel
[illegible]

[illegible]

The conversion of light energy into electricity using the photovoltaic effect in solid-state junction devices has been the subject of intensive research and development over the past 40 years. Recently, photoelectrochemical cells based on the sensitization of nanocrystalline oxide films have been reported with attractive conversion efficiencies and stabilities. Such photoelectrochemical cells are based on the injection of electrons from photoexcited molecular dyes into the conduction band of a wide band gap oxide semiconductor. The dye molecules are regenerated by electron donors in the electrolyte. The mesoporous oxide film, which has a large surface area, is filled with the electrolyte and in contact with the dye. Photoinduced electron injection from the dye into the oxide and dye regeneration by the electrolyte are the two primary processes that result in the conversion of light into electricity. The device is illustrated in Figure 1. The mesoporous oxide film is made from a wide band gap semiconductor, usually titanium dioxide, which is transparent to visible light. The dye is a molecular compound that is capable of absorbing visible light and injecting electrons into the conduction band of the oxide. The electrolyte is usually a solution containing a redox couple, such as iodide/triiodide, which regenerates the dye by donating electrons to the oxidized dye molecules. The counter electrode is typically a thin layer of platinum or graphite that catalyzes the reduction of the redox couple. The overall process is the conversion of light energy into electrical energy, without any permanent chemical change occurring in the cell.

Technical Background

The concept of photosensitization can be traced back to the early 1900s, when researchers discovered that the addition of certain dyes to silver halide photographic emulsions greatly increased the sensitivity of the film to visible light. Photosensitization is the process by which a photochemical alteration occurs in a molecule as a result of the absorption of light by another molecule, called the photosensitizer. The photosensitizer is a dye that absorbs visible light and transfers the energy to the molecule undergoing the reaction. In photography, the photosensitizer is adsorbed onto the surface of silver halide crystals, and the dye molecules inject electrons into the conduction band of the silver halide, which then reduces silver ions to silver metal, forming a latent image. The dye is then removed from the film during development.

The first photovoltaic cell based on a dye-sensitized semiconductor was reported in 1887 by Vogel, who observed a photocurrent when a silver halide plate was dyed with a light-absorbing dye. The concept of photosensitization was also used in early photographic processes, such as the wet collodion process, which was developed in the 1850s. In this process, a glass plate was coated with a thin layer of collodion (a solution of nitrocellulose in ether and alcohol) containing silver halide crystals. The plate was then exposed to light and developed in a solution of silver nitrate. The dye was added to the collodion layer to sensitize the silver halide crystals to light.

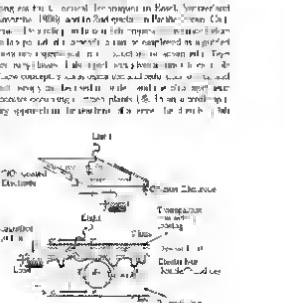

Figure 1. Dye-sensitized TiO2 solar cell. The device consists of a monolayer of dye molecules attached to the surface of a mesoporous film of titanium dioxide nanocrystals. The pores are filled with a redox electrolyte, usually containing iodide and triiodide ions. Light is absorbed by the dye, which injects electrons into the conduction band of the TiO2. The electrons percolate through the film to the back contact and then pass through the external load to the counter electrode. The dye is regenerated by the electrolyte, which is in turn regenerated at the counter electrode by the electrons that have traversed the external circuit.

Pulled Over

A woman who was driving down the highway pulled over to the side of the road when the policeman driving behind her turned on his lights and siren.

She didn't have her seat belt on so as soon as she stopped, she quickly slipped it on before the officer got to her window.

After talking to her about speeding, the officer said, "I see you are wearing your seat belt. Do you believe in wearing it at all times?"

"Yes, I do, officer," she politely replied.

"Interesting," said the officer. "Do you always loop it through your steering wheel like that?"

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to

1-855-330-1239 (a toll-free number in the United States.)

When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero. This site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

Just don't put any private information here :)

But I think it would be very obvious when people type faxtoy.net into their browser for the first time and see that the faxes are posted.

But hey, it's a VoIPy fax. Down with T.38!

topDENTISTS™ More than just a dentist – the right dentist

December 2, 2017

Dr Kimberley D Sauer
Dixon Pediatric Dental Group
5627 Oberlin Drive, Suite 100
San Diego, CA 92121

Dear Dr Sauer:

We are pleased to inform you that you have been selected by a vote of your peers to be included in the 2018 database of topDentists.™ The listings for the San Diego area appear online at www.usatopdentists.com and will appear in the April issue of San Diego Magazine.

Because topDentists is based on an exhaustive peer-review survey in which dentists and specialists throughout San Diego county cast "votes" on the abilities of other dentists and specialists, and because listings cannot be purchased (and no payment is required to be listed), inclusion in topDentists is considered a singular honor.

With over sixty years in combined experience compiling peer-review professional referral guides, we have been able to use our experience along with the input of dentists across the United States to create a methodology that has been refined and improved over previous superlative guides.

Congratulations on being honored by your peers.

Sincerely,

Mark Barkley

This is an extract from Treasure Island by Robert Louis Stevenson. Read the story on side a and side b. Then do the exercise on side b.

It was not very long after this that there occurred the first of the mysterious events that led us at last of the captain, though not, as you will see, of his affairs. It was a bitter cold winter, with long, hard frosts and heavy gales, and it was plain from the first that my poor father was little likely to see the spring. He sank daily, and my mother and I [Jim] had all the run upon our hands, and were kept busy enough, without paying much regard to our unpleasant guest.

It was one January morning, very early—a pinching, frosty morning—the cove all grey with hoar-frost, the ripple lapping softly on the stones, the sun still low and only touching the hilltops and shining far to seaward. The captain had risen earlier than usual, and set out down the beach, his cutlass swinging under the broad skirts of the old blue coat, his brass telescope under his arm, his hat tilted back upon his head.

I propose to change the system to that when density card output is requested, plotted densities are punched out. In the normal case these would simply be the average densities. If the test code calls for E.N.D. conversion, it would be the E.N.D. densities that are punched out. If the test breaks down, e.g. because of range check failure, we would get cards punched out for individual strips, since individuals are plotted in that case.

I would appreciate your comments on this proposal by January 2, 1971.

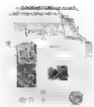
Documents Stack

Welcome to Mac OS X Leopard

The Dock in Leopard has a sleek new look and a new feature called Stacks. With Stacks you can quickly access important and frequently used files right from the Dock.



Stacks are simple to create. Just drag any folder to the right side of the Dock and it becomes a stack. Click a stack and it will spring from the Dock in either a fan or grid. To open a file in a stack, just click the file once.

Mac OS X Leopard includes two pre-made stacks called Documents and Downloads. You opened this file from the Documents stack. The Documents stack is a great place to keep things like presentations, spreadsheets, and word processing files. You can drag and drop files to the stack or save them to the stack when you save a document in an application.

Documents Downloads

Stacks automatically display their contents in a fan or grid based on the number of items in the Stack. If you prefer one style over the other, you can set the stack to always open in that style. Stacks intelligently show the most relevant items first or you can set the sort order to make sure the item you care about most always appear at the top of the stack. To customize a stack, position the pointer over the stack icon and then hold down the mouse button until a menu appears.

To delete a file from a stack, just open the stack and drag the item you wish to remove to the Trash. In fact, when you're done reading this document, feel free to throw it out.

Adobe Acrobat PDF Files

Adobe® Portable Document Format (PDF) is a universal file format that preserves all of the fonts, formatting, colours and graphics of any source document, regardless of the application and platform used to create it.

Adobe PDF is an ideal format for electronic document distribution as it overcomes the problems commonly encountered with electronic file sharing.

- Anyone, anywhere can open a PDF file. All you need is the free Adobe Acrobat Reader. Recipients of other file formats sometimes can't open files because they don't have the applications used to create the documents.
- PDF files always print correctly on any printing device.
- PDF files always display exactly as created, regardless of fonts, software, and operating systems. Fonts and graphics are not lost due to platform, software, and version incompatibilities.
- The free Acrobat Reader is easy to download and can be freely distributed by anyone.
- Compact PDF files are smaller than their source files and download a page at a time for fast display on the Web.

In CONGRESS, July 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen United States of America

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer while evils are sufferable than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security.

Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their Public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long term after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative Powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

He has obstructed the Administration of Justice by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary Powers.

He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their Salaries.

He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil Power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation,

For quartering large bodies of troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock Trial from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent:

For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury:

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences.

For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies:

For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments:

For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated Government here by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people

He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign mercenaries to compleat the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & Perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

In every stage of these Oppressions We have petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

We therefore the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these united Colonies are, and of right ought to be Free and independent States, and they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor t, click the "Accessories" and then the "System Information" folder.

Other methods of determining the modem type

One of the best methods of determining the modem within a computer is to inspect the modem. On the majority of modems you will be able to determine the manufacturer, model number, and speed by opening the computer and physically looking at the modem.

If you are unable to locate a manufacturer or model number of the modem, but are able to locate a FCC identification number, it is recommended that you perform a FCC search using [illegible] numbers and how to search

About June

When we think about our mother June we automatically put Dad—Leo—in the picture. They had nicknames for themselves "Romleo and Junlet." They were best friends and lovers for nearly 63 years, when Dad passed away in May 2007. Mom missed him terribly. However, she never complained, rather she often said that she was grateful for the many years she and Dad had together. Mom and Dad shared similar values, they appreciated what they had.

Mom and Dad met in Middlebury, Vermont, where Mom was enrolled at the College and Dad took courses while in the navy. There were few Jewish students at Middlebury and special gatherings were arranged for them, often on religious holidays. June and Leo met at a Passover Seder. Dad was smitten at first sight, and kept nudging her to get married until he wore her down and she said yes. Mom recounted, "I barely knew him." After 62 years of marriage, we asked her "Well, so have you gotten to know Dad yet?" Mom would say "We're still working at it."

Mom and Dad loved learning, and were voracious readers. They took courses at SUNY-Purchase for many years. Dad read history and historical novels. Mom read literature, poetry and fiction in French. (Mom taught French at Scarsdale H.S. for 20 years.) Until several weeks before she died, Mom regularly had "The New York Times" in hand. In recent weeks, when she could no longer read, Mom kept her eyes on the page from habit.

Family was uppermost in Mom's mind. She was a devoted daughter, sister, mother, aunt and grandmother. June deeply loved her father Carl, and shared her family's grief following his death. Her mother, Sadie, lived with June and Leo for several years, while recuperating from this devastating loss. Mom adored her younger sister, Florence, and was grateful for the life-long loving care by her husband Bob. Florence became ill with multiple sclerosis. Over the decades that she dealt with MS, Mom admired Florence's positive, caring attitude toward others, her laughter and enjoyment of life.

Mom and Dad so loved their grandchildren, Jeremy, Sadie and Reva, and the newest addition to the family, Jeremy's wife McKenzie. They loved their nieces Laura and Carolyn, daughters of Florence and Bob. They were so proud of all these beautiful individuals for their warmth, kindness, industry in school and work, and much more.

Mom was a modest, generous person, always thinking about others. Even as her Alzheimer's advanced, she would ask her children, her friends, and her caregivers, "Are you feeling okay? Do you want some dessert?"

Mom and Dad did not stint when it came to the health, education and welfare of their children and grandchildren. Although Mom disliked driving, she was constantly in the car bringing us to music lessons, Girl Scouts, Little League, ballet classes, Hebrew school. Waiting many hours until lessons ended, Mom knitted. One creation was a beautiful yellow jacket that Mom wore until just before her death.

"This movie is a scorcher. Every performance is brilliant"
-Sean Smith, US MAGAZINE
A riveting tale of desperation and betrayal based on David Mamet's Pulitzer Prize-winning play.
Al Pacino, Jack Lemmon, Alec Baldwin, Ed Harris and Kevin Spacey shine in this powerful story set in the world of real estate. Times are tough at Premiere Properties. Shelley "The machine" Levene (Lemmon) and Moss (Harris) are veteran salesmen, but only Ricky Roma (Pacino) is on a hot streak. The new Glengarry sales leads could turn everything around, but the front office is holding them back until those "losers" prove themselves. Two successive burglaries to take matters into his own hands, stealing the Glengarry leads and leaving everyone wondering who did it.

I
Kristie!

Dear [redacted]

I would like to ask your your support of marriage equality. I would like to see our great notation have an election or parliament to approve marriage equality for all Marriage equality does not effect the marriage of Men and Women. Right now with the current non-equal marriage laws it effects everyone.

If most of Australia supports marriage equality then why not listen to us and just approve it. I don't think a few people who are not in favor of it should hold back the approval of this.

If two thirds of Australia supports marriage equality then approve it Better yet lets make a public vote on it

The last time I checked it is parliaments job to listen to the people Please listen to the people and help all of Australia and vote yes to approve marriage equality

It's only fair that we all get the same respect to marry who we want to and not have government tell us who we can and can not marry

Regards, [redacted]

Each line has two pairs of connections for TIP and ring in parallel connected to the RING. It is over a normal device, such as a local telephone or answering machine, to be connected in parallel with the telephone jack via the TI-2. Good evening this is a test, trying to remove the header and footer from my fax's

Today is July 11, 2013

o There is a large overhead from the number of bytes needed for the external header (4 bytes) and the possible padding that is needed at the end of the extension to round up to a four byte boundary (up to 3 bytes). For many applications this overhead is unacceptable.

o Use of the header extension limits applications to a single redundant encoding. Unless further structure is introduced into the extension. This would result in further overhead.

For these reasons the use of RTP header extension to hold redundant audio encodings is discouraged.

The RTP Profile for audio and video conferences [1] lists a set of the possible schemes for assigning additional RTP payload types for redundant, audio applications.

1 A dynamic encoding scheme may be defined, for each combination of primary/redundant payload types using the RTP dynamic payload type range.

2 A single fixed payload type may be defined to represent a packet with redundancy. This may then be assigned to either a static RTP payload type, or the payload type for this may be assigned dynamically.

It is possible to define a set of payload types that specify a particular combination of primary and secondary encodings for each of the 32 dynamic payload types provided. This would be a slightly restrictive yet feasible solution for packets with a single block of redundancy as the number of possible combinations is not too large. However the need for multiple blocks of redundancy greatly increases the number of encoding combinations and makes this solution not feasible.

A modified version of the above solution could be to decide yearly on the encoding of a combination of a small 32 encoding combinations that will be used for the duration of the conference. All tools in the conference can be initialized with this working set of encoding combinations. Communication of the working set could be made through the use of an out of band, negotiation. Setup is complicated as great care needs to be taken in starting tools with identical parameters. This scheme is more efficient as only one byte is used to identify combinations of encodings.

TELL ME A STORY

The Mistletoe | A Celtic Tale

Adapted by Amy Friedman
Illustrated by Jillian Gill Isnd

©2011 Chronicle Books

Long ago in the darkest days of winter, a blanket of snow lay softly on the ground.

A full moon rose. The men and women of the village watched the moon rise and they knew that soon their priest, the sacred druid, would call them to journey.

In preparation they wrapped themselves in thick, hooded cloaks of wool dyed in many colors and they reached them-selves for the celebrations that would soon take place.

All of them, from the poor est shepherd to the wealthiest landlord to the noblest warriors in the village, thought of just one thing.

The druid dressed himself in his white robes and led two white oxen, yoked for the first time in their young lives, to the center of the village.

Then he called his people, and they gathered behind him, ready for their journey.

They began their long walk, their way lighted by the full moon.

As they neared the edge of the forest, the path grew steep, but no one missed a step, and no one complained.

The night was bitter cold, and the moon sharp and clear. The people were filled with silent wonder at the beauty of their world.

They walked into the dark forest where the sky was hidden from sight, and darkness ruled, but still some remnant of light and remembrance guided them.

As the wind began to whistle through the thick branches, the druid began to chant. Even the trees seemed to chant along.

The old man surely knew the language of the trees, but then, the druid knew everything there was to know about the world, and that is why the people gladly followed him.

The Mistletoe

After a while, everything familiar disappeared.

They were far from their homes, far from their fields and cattle and sheep. Still, they walked with confidence.

At last, the druid called them to halt, and he pointed at a tall, stat dy oak just in front of them. The limbs of the stately tree seemed to rise to the sky in prayer, and the moonlight shone down upon them again.

"This is our tree," the druid said, and altogether the people chanted, "Our tree." The forest echoed with the sound of their voices.

There, in the twisted branches of the tree, was a ball of bright green leaves.

They might have been surprised at the sight in this forest barren of leaves, but this happened every year at this time.

The druid found the place where the gods had chosen to bless a special tree.

There in the branches grew the mystical magical plant that had no roots, yet still had bright green leaves even when the other trees and branches were bare and brown.

The plant, the people believed, came from another world, from the world of their gods, the world of their dead, and its green leaves were a potent symbol, the symbol of life bursting out of death.

The druid called the plant the mistletoe, and every year, when the people saw it, they knew that their dead were among them, still, casting their blessings and prayers to all who remained on Earth.

At the druid's signal, the people formed a circle around the blessed tree, and the druid, old and frail, his hands weak and shaking, began, with what seemed no effort at all, to climb those sturdy branches.

Up he climbed, careful to watch his footing, but pulled as if by magic toward the plant.

"He makes it seem easy," the people whispered. "He's guided by the gods," others answered.

In his hand he carried a sickle of gold, bright as the sun.

He chanted as he climbed, gripping the sickle tightly, and when he finally reached the top of the tree, he lifted the sickle and, with one mighty blow, cut the mistletoe.

As he cut it, the people down below gave thanks for this blessing, for the memory of their ancestors and loved ones, for the signs of life that always exist in the world, even in the darkest days.

As the mistletoe fell to the ground, the snow began to fall harder, the wind whistled more loudly, and the people said their thanks.

They knew now that all would be well for the year to come because they held in their hands the plant from the kingdom of the dead.

The magical plant brought light and joy, love and remembrance, to all the world.

Terms, conditions and agreements

I authorize Wells Fargo Services' ALP program to initiate debit entries to my checking or savings account at the financial institution named below for payment of my loan(s) with Wells Fargo Services. I authorize my financial institution to debit the account indicated below and to credit the same to Wells Fargo Services' account. This authority will remain in effect until Wells Fargo Services receives written notification from me of its termination in such time as to afford Wells Fargo Services and my financial institution a reasonable opportunity to act on it. If the amount of a debit varies in amount from the previous debit by more than 10 percent or the amount differs from a predetermined amount, I will receive notification from Wells Fargo Services at least 10 days prior to the debit being made. I understand that my financial institution's agreement governing my account may limit the number of withdrawals I can make each month and may assess a fee for each withdrawal. I understand that because these are electronic entries to my account, stop payment privileges are limited. I understand that Wells Fargo Services does not assume responsibility for any loss I may incur if this authority is revoked by me or my financial institution before Wells Fargo Services receives notification from me. I understand that Wells Fargo Services may change the terms of this agreement by mailing a notice to me at least 30 days before the effective date of any change. I understand that this agreement is governed by the laws of the state where I have my account with my financial institution. I understand that I may not change the payment date, amount or frequency of my payments unless I complete a new ALP authorization form.

The ALP debit authority I have granted to Wells Fargo Services' program will be effective when I return the following items to Wells Fargo Services:

1. This completed authorization.
2. A voided check or deposit slip from the checking or savings account you want to use for loan payments.

A voided check is available in the form of a check or deposit slip that has been marked "VOID" across the front. Do not use a starter check or deposit slip. Do not send a copy of a check or deposit slip. Do not send a check or deposit slip that is not voided.

ALP benefits include:

- Additional flexibility, convenience, no paper checks and no postage.
- Your payment will be deducted automatically from your account on the due date each month.
- Your payment will be credited to your account on the day it is deducted.

GCSE Results 2013

Please find enclosed your GCSE results. I hope you are happy with your achievements. Dr Hull will be available in school on 22nd and 23rd August if you require any advice. If you wish to meet with him, please telephone the school office.

All pupils who are returning to school to study in Sixth Form should have attained a minimum of 7 GCSE Full Course passes at grade C or better. It is important to remember that GCSE Short Course subjects taken, such as ICT and Religious Education, carry a half point tariff and as such, may not be used to qualify for entry into the Sixth Form.

Pupils should also have achieved a grade B or better at GCSE level in a subject which they intend to continue study in at A Level.

Pupils who wish to study a new subject in Year 13 should have achieved a grade B or better at GCSE in a closely related subject. For example, to study Politics at A Level a GCSE grade B in History or English will be required.

Furthermore, in order to study Mathematics at A Level it is recommended that pupils have studied GCSE Additional Mathematics and/or have achieved a grade A in GCSE Mathematics. Entry to A Level Mathematics will be at the discretion of the Headmaster and Head of Department if you fall outside of this recommendation.

A pupil's academic record, extra-curricular contribution and behaviour over the past five years will also be considered before a place in the Sixth Form is confirmed.

Pupils will not be permitted to enter Year 13 unless all Capital Fees (including 2013/14) are paid in full by Tuesday 27th August 2013. The Bursar may consider staged payments in exceptional circumstances. It is important that you contact the Bursar Mr G Knight, prior to the 27th August 2013 if you wish to avail of this option.

CancerTYPE ID — Molecular Classification with CancerTYPE ID

FFPE Tissue Processing & Tumor Enrichment

- CancerTYPE ID requires as few as 300-500 viable tumor cells and is compatible with limited biopsy specimens such as FNAs, cytological specimens, and small-core needle biopsies.
- CancerTYPE ID routinely employs laser guided microdissection to enrich for tumor specimen.

Gene Expression Profiling

- CancerTYPE ID uses a robust real-time RT-PCR platform to detect very small differences in gene expression
- CancerTYPE ID measures and analyzes the gene expression of 92 genes, 5 normalization genes and 87 lineage determinant and tissue specific genes, most of which are not routinely processed by IHC.

Reference Tumor Database & Algorithm

- CancerTYPE ID uses a computational algorithm to predict the patient's tumor type based on the degree of similarity of the sample's 92-gene expression profile to a reference database of gene expression profiles. The reference database contains gene expression information from over 2,000 tumor specimens of known histogenesis, and representing ~95% of all solid tumors based on incidence
- the CancerTYPE ID algorithm provides a predicted main type and any sub-types in rank-order by relative probabilities which are based on the tumor's gene expression similarity to tumors of these types in the reference database.

Molecular Classification

- CancerTYPE ID classifies 28 tumor types and 50 tumor subtypes.
- In an independent validation of 790 blinded samples, the molecular diagnosis was 87% accurate for main tumor type and 82% accurate for tumor subtype

Interpreting CancerTYPE ID Test Results

MOLECULAR DIAGNOSIS
The tumor type with the highest probability is reported as the molecular diagnosis. In this example, the patient's tumor has 98% probability of matching an ovarian serous adenocarcinoma within the CancerTYPE ID reference database. If the highest probability is <80%, the tumor is reported as indeterminate, in this case, the test report will not indicate tumor types that can be ruled out and hopes that cannot be excluded

CANNOT BE EXCLUDED
When applicable, tumor types from the CancerTYPE ID reference database that show some gene expression profile similarity to the patient's sample such that they cannot be excluded from diagnostic consideration will be listed here in relative rank order

RULE OUTS
The CancerTYPE ID test report also lists tumor types that can all be ruled out with 95% confidence from an independent validation of 790 blinded samples. The rule-outs were 95% accurate. This may provide useful different diagnostic information when two or more potential tumor types are suspected and one or more tumors may be excluded in the rule outs

YOUR ESCROW ANALYSIS

If we are maintaining a reserve account for the payment of taxes, insurance premiums, and/or other escrow items, a portion of your mortgage payment is deposited into your EscrowTemp account each month. Should your estimated or actual bills for taxes, insurance, and/or other escrow items go up or down, the amount we collect may be too little or too much to pay the anticipated bills. Therefore, we analyze your escrow account each year to adjust for the difference.

Your escrow account is maintained on an aggregate balance basis. This means that we calculate the amount of your next annual escrow payment based upon the lowest balance expected to occur within the 12-month period beginning with the effective payment change date for your escrow analysis. The anticipated low balance is the estimated forward running total balance of the expected escrow receipts and disbursements at which the anticipated balance at the end of each month is noted. Your mortgage contract indicates when the maximum permitted low balance should be.

Your escrow payment will be equal to 1/12 of the net expected total escrow disbursements plus a one-time portion of any shortage determined to exist if the lowest escrow balance in the running total balance is less than the maximum permitted low balance. Shortages are usually a result of an unanticipated increase in taxes and/or insurance premiums, and/or the maintenance of any escrow authorized by your mortgage contract.

The effective date of your escrow analysis is the date on which the change in your payment takes effect.

THE FOLLOWING EXPLANATION IS PROVIDED TO ASSIST YOU IN UNDERSTANDING YOUR ESCROW ANALYSIS STATEMENT

SSC-3032 (0699)

Section 1:

The "DESCRIPTION" identifies each escrow item that we will be paying.

The "NEXT DUE DATE" is the date by which the bill for each escrow item must be paid.

The "ESTIMATED AMOUNT(S) OF NEXT DISBURSEMENT" are the anticipated amount(s) for the next bill(s) for each escrow item.

The "AMOUNT(S) USED IN PRIOR ANALYSIS" are the corresponding amount(s) used in your prior escrow analysis.

Section 2:

The "ANALYSIS TYPE" indicates how we have classified your mortgage contract for escrow analysis purposes. It specifies the percentage, if any, of the total projected disbursements that we used to determine the maximum permitted low point for your escrow account.

The "PROJECTED ESCROW BALANCE" is the projected balance in your account as of the effective date of the analysis.

The "ANTICIPATED LOW POINT FOR ANALYSIS PERIOD" is the lowest balance anticipated to be in your escrow account during the 12 month period beginning with the effective date of the analysis.

The "MAXIMUM PERMITTED LOW POINT" is the maximum balance that can be projected to be in your account as the lowest point during the period covered by the escrow analysis. This balance is determined by your classification of your mortgage contract.

Section 3:

The "SURPLUS" is the amount by which the Anticipated Low Point exceeds the Maximum Permitted Low Point For Analysis Period.

The "SHORTAGE" is the amount by which the Maximum Permitted Low Point exceeds the Anticipated Low Point For Analysis Period.

Test your fax machine.

To test the capability of your fax machine, follow the steps listed below:

IMPORTANT: Be sure that your phone number is "dialable" by your machine. Some company PBX systems require you to dial an outside line before dialing the toll-free number. Be sure that your machine will send the Caller ID blocking feature in most cases. Some phone company services will prevent you from receiving a fax, including voice mail, call blocking, or call privacy features.

NOTE: Whenever troubleshooting a fax issue, it is good practice to turn the Automatic Reports option to Every Error before attempting a test fax. This will print a report for fails, or error codes which will be generated that will guide you in future troubleshooting. This option is available on different places on different products. Consult the product User's Guide for specific steps.

1. Send a one page piece of white text fax to 1-800-474-7000.
2. When your fax is received by the HP Fax Service you will generally receive a return fax to you within five minutes. Successful test we received your fax. This verifies that you can both send and receive fax with your fax machine.

If you do not receive a return fax within 5-7 minutes, Send may be a problem with the setup of your fax machine. Consult the user manual that came with your product for proper setup and configuration.

NOTE: The most common cause of clients failing the fax service will be the fax machine did not include the prefix of the phone line connected to the fax. As an, clients that is fax header machine the full 10-digit telephone number of the fax machine, including area code.

Flower

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

A flower, sometimes known as a bloom or blossom, is the reproductive structure found in flowering plants (plants of the division Magnoliophyta, also called angiosperms). The biological function of a flower is to effect reproduction, usually by providing a mechanism for the union of sperm with eggs. Flowers may facilitate outcrossing (fusion of sperm and eggs from different individuals in a population) or allow selfing (fusion of sperm and egg from the same flower). Some flowers produce diaspores without fertilization (parthenocarpy). Flowers contain sporangia and are the site where gametophytes develop. Flowers give rise to fruit and seeds. Many flowers have evolved to be attractive to animals, so as to cause them to be vectors for the transfer of pollen.

In addition to facilitating the reproduction of flowering plants, flowers have long been admired and used by humans to beautify their environment, but also as objects of romance, ritual, religion, medicine and as a source of food.

Studies

Standing AP x-ray of left knee taken on August 6, 2012. There is some joint space narrowing laterally with subchondral sclerosis and osteophytes. Ankle mortise and hindfoot are unremarkable. There are osteophytes.

Plan

The patient has improved. I have given him some exercises to do at home. The possibility of surgical intervention during physical therapy was discussed. I recommend that he continue with an exercise program that he already knows well. He will continue supervised therapy 2 times a week for the next 4 weeks and at the end, I encouraged him to do so. He was told that any pain he has had could be due to the degenerative joint disease and he will continue to eat. I discussed the use of narcotic medication. He should review this with his primary doctor as refills will be gotten from him and he may require pain management to get off the medications. Ultimately he will require total knee replacement on the left side. I have discussed all these issues with the left knee. Ultimately there is an elective procedure and he does not need to do it if he wants that. Hopefully he will improve sufficiently to return to work. For now I will continue his disability. I also discussed therapeutic injections. Follow up there as needed.

Marsha's Terrible Job Interview

Marsha had a job interview with the Sunshine Biscuit Company last Monday. Her appointment with the interviewer was for 10:00 am. She had forgotten to set her alarm clock, so she woke up at 9:30 am and got to the interview an hour late, at 11:00 am.

Because she woke up so late, she didn't have much time to get ready. She took a quick shower and put on the first dress that she found in her closet. It was a very short dress that showed a little too much, the kind of dress a woman wears when she's trying to attract a boyfriend at a cocktail party. She also put on a lot of very cheap perfume, the kind you can smell down the street.

She left the house without eating breakfast and she ran to the bus stop. The bus was late in coming, but she didn't want to spend the money on a taxi. When she finally got to the Sunshine Biscuit company, she ran into the building and ran into the interviewing office. She ran up to the secretary's desk and screamed, "I'm here! My bus was late!" The secretary was a bit surprised, but asked her who she was and what time her appointment was for. Marsha answered, "I'm Marsha and my interview is for right now." Of course, it was already 11:00 am and her interview had been scheduled for an hour earlier.

The secretary called the interviewer, Mr. Green, on the intercom and he told her to send Marsha in.

Marsha was chewing gum as she entered the office. She took a seat without saying anything to Mr. Green. Mr. Green was slightly surprised to see Marsha act so boldly, even though she was an hour late. He introduced himself and asked how she was. She said that she was feeling lousy and that the public transportation in the town was awful. He asked her what kind of position she was looking for, and if she had a resume. She said that she had no resume because she didn't have time to write one. She also had no idea of what kind of job she wanted, she just wanted one that paid well. He asked her if she had any questions for him, and she asked him if she could have Wednesday afternoons off so that she could see her psychiatrist. She also asked him if the company gave at least a two-week vacation. He asked her what skills she had and she answered that she could type, but that she couldn't take a typing test because tests made her nervous.

Mr. Green thanked Marsha for coming, and she asked, "Do I get a job or not?" He said that he would call her if there was an opening, and she said, "Well, hurry please, because I'm broke and I can't pay the rent."

Reaching for the Stars

As we got further and further away, it [the Earth] diminished in size. Finally it shrank to the size of a marble, the most beautiful you can imagine. That beautiful, warm, living object looked so fragile, so delicate, that if you touched it with a finger it would crumble and fall apart. Seeing this has to change a man.

Space, the final frontier. These are the voyages of the Starship Enterprise. Its five-year mission: to explore strange new worlds, to seek out new life and new civilizations, to boldly go where no man has gone before.

As I stand out here in the wonders of the unknown at Hadley, I sort of realize there's a fundamental truth to our nature, Man must explore, and this is exploration at its greatest.

Adobe Acrobat PDF Files

Adobe® Portable Document Format (PDF) is a universal file format that preserves all of the fonts, formatting, colours and graphics of any source document, regardless of the application and platform used to create it.

Adobe PDF is an ideal format for electronic document distribution as it overcomes the problems commonly encountered with electronic file sharing.

- Anyone, anywhere can open a PDF file. All you need is the free Adobe Acrobat Reader. Recipients of other file formats sometimes can't open files because they don't have the applications used to create the documents.
- PDF files always print correctly on any printing device.
- PDF files always display exactly as created, regardless of fonts, software, and operating systems. Fonts and graphics are not lost due to platform, software, and version incompatibilities.
- The free Acrobat Reader is easy to download and can be freely distributed by anyone.
- Compact PDF files are smaller than their source files and download a page at a time for fast display on the Web.

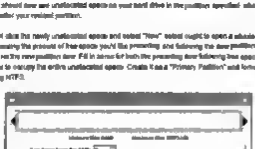
This should present you with drive capacity information and the option to enter a new size you'd like your partition to be. The recommended minimum partition size for Windows 7 is 16GB so opt for that size or larger.

You should now see unallocated space on your hard drive in the position specified, situated just after your resized partition.

Right click the newly unallocated space and select "New" select ought to open a wizard requesting the amount of free space you'd like proceeding and following the new partition as well as the new partition letter. Fill in areas for both the proceeding and following free space in order to occupy the entire unallocated space. Create it as a "Primary Partition" and format it using NTFS.



You should now see a healthy primary capacity item the capacity you defined above. Click Apply and finalize the operation. Once that's done you can now move on to step 3.

Kansas Texas Kentucky and Purdue held the top four spots in The Associated Press' college basketball poll for the fourth straight week. Now they are the only unbeaten teams left in Division I.

The Jayhawks (13-0) were again the runaway No. 1 on Monday receiving 56 first-place votes from the 65 member national media panel. Texas (13-0) was No. 1 on eight ballots, while Kentucky (15-0) had the remaining first-place vote.

Duke and Villanova moved up two spots to fifth and sixth, while Syracuse and West Virginia dropped to seventh and eighth. Syracuse and West Virginia each lost for the first time last week. North Carolina remained No. 9 and Michigan State moved up one spot to round out the top 10.

Four teams — Gonzaga, Georgia Tech, Pittsburgh and BYU — moved into the rankings from 19th to 25th.

Kansas State advanced one spot to 11th and was followed by Georgetown, Connecticut, Mississippi, New Mexico, Tennessee, Wisconsin, Florida State, Gonzaga and Georgia Tech. The last five ranked teams were Temple, Texas Tech, Pittsburgh, Washington and BYU.

Re: Nerds – from http://www.jokeswarehouse.com/cgi-bin/view/joke2.cgi?id=20030307

A trucker hauling computers and accessories is driving down the highway late one night when he sees a truck stopped on the side of the road. So he decides to pull over. On approaching the door he reads a sign NO NERDS. He shrugs it off and enters. He is greeted by the end of a shotgun barrel in his face. Are you a nerd?" the bartender asks.

No, I'm a truck driver," he replies. He's allowed in, so he orders a cup of coffee, sits at the bar and drinks it.

While he drinks his coffee a man walks in wearing his pocket protector and thick-framed glasses. The bartender pulls out his shotgun and blows him away.

What the hell did you do that for?" asks the trucker.

"Well," the bartender answers, "it's nerd season."

"Nerd season?" asks the trucker, confused.

"Yeah. See, the nerd population in this town is getting out of hand, so we've opened up nerd season."

So, with that, he finishes his coffee and goes back on the road. While he drives the car in front of him suddenly swerves and wrecks. To avoid becoming part the disaster, he swerves to get out of way. The swerve is too much. His tractor-trailer tips and its dumps its load all over the road. He gets out of his truck to see nerds coming from all directions grabbing everything they can. He doesn't know what to do. He's gotta stop this. Remembering what the bartender told him, he goes back to the truck and pulls out his gun and starts picking them off, one by one. While doing this a highway patrol officer starts running after him, waving his arms screaming, "STOP, STOP!"

"What?" the trucker asks, confused. "I thought it was nerd season."

Well yeah," the officer answers. But you can't bait 'em!

Fit Facts

Fact #1 Twenty percent of preschool children are obese, and thirty percent of children as a whole are obese. Studies show that by 2010 nearly fifty percent of children will be obese!

Fact #2 Obese children have 70 percent chances of remaining obese even as then adulthood.

Fact #3 Children don t exercise enough because of the computer video games and lack of knowledge. They are not shown the vital importance of exercise for their body to be healthy

Fact# 4 Obese youngsters were more likely to miss school than healthy, most normal weight kids because they suffered more weight-related physical ailments and endured more teasing at school

29.4.1 FORCE_ALERT Message (Function Code 0x0409)

Command Class—0x06	Command Type—0x00	Function Code—0x0409
Configuration—Device Level	Configuration Usage	FORCE_ALERT

The FORCE_ALERT command generates an alert error condition in the device. This can be useful for testing Host error handling, fail-over, and switch preparation for a Coredump when the device did not issue a fatal alert message.

The FORCE_ALERT command can be used to generate a fatal alert that will flush the ARM routines, and also save important working data that would otherwise be lost during the Coredump process (that is, device RESET) when using CSM_ENCAPS control.

The command takes a single 16 bit parameter which specifies the Alert Type generated by the device. When preparing for a Coredump it is recommended to use Alert Type 0x0024 which generates a fatal event. (Alert Types are described in the Section 29.2.4, Alert Diagnostic Indication Format, on page 528.)

Parameter 1 (FIFO Word 4) Alert Type to be generated

FIFO Word#	Description
4	Bits [15]: Alert Type to be Generated Alert Type 0x0024 (Data Abort) is recommended for Coredump

29.5 Diagnostic Output Paths

Diagnostic messages and responses can be transferred between the MSP Device and the Host using the ROUPI interface or the RMII Ethernet interface (using Open Diagnostics and CSM-ENCAPS).

Open diagnostics have the ability to be redirected to a different output. Redirection can reduce the load for a Host to recognize, store and capture debug information when needed. With redirection, the diagnostics can be redirected to Ethernet (for instance) where the debug information will be automatically routed to a diagnostics server.

- Path 1: REDIRECT OVER CSM_ENCAPS or REDIRECT OVER IPUDP
- Path 2: ROUPI

29.5.1 Sequence for Configuring Unified Diagnostic Commands Example

- SHT_ITEM_PARAMS – Device Level Configuration is first
- SET_ETH_HDR_DEVICE – MSP Device Source MAC Address
- IP_SERVICE_CFG – required before SET_IP_HDR command
- IP_ADDRESS – MSP Device Source IP Address
- ARP_SERVICE_CONFIG – option for Host
- NIF_SELECT – NIF of Ethernet interface to which Open Diags will be redirected
- REDIRECT OVER CSM_ENCAPS or REDIRECT OVER IPUDP
- SUPVSR_CREATE_CHANNEL

After the SUPVSR_CREATE_CHANNEL command, the "Enable diag" commands can be issued before or after enabling Voice (VOPENA) on a specific channel. If moves are required from the beginning of a voice call, the "Enable diag" command must be sent before enabling voice on a specific channel.

And They Reckon That Blondes Are Dumb!

Bubba and Cooter were standing at the base of a flagpole in Midland, Texas, looking up.

A blonde lady walked by and asked what they were doing.

"We're supposed to find the height of the flagpole," said Bubba, "But we don't have a ladder."

The blonde woman took a wrench from her purse, loosened a few bolts, and laid the pole down. Then she took a tape measure from her pocket, took a measurement and announced, "Eighteen feet, six inches," and walked away.

Cooter shook his head and laughed. "Ain't that just like a dumb blonde? We ask for the height and she gives us the length!"

14. When the installation is complete, click Finish to close the installer.

    The `migrate.log` file is created during the migration. This file provides you with a log of the migration process and a list of the components that were migrated. Review the `migrate.log` file located in the default installation directory for a complete list and details of all components migrated.

15. Open the Avalanche Console and perform a Universal Deployment to re-establish communications with your distributed servers.

    Any deployed Mobile Device or Infrastructure Servers will be set to a dormant state and will not attempt to communicate with the devices or the Enterprise Server until a Universal Deployment occurs. To upgrade the servers to the new version, create and deploy new server packages. When you create Infrastructure Server packages, create the full deployment package, not the lightweight version.

NOTE: Wavelink strongly recommends using the Task Scheduler to uninstall and then redeploy any Infrastructure servers that are older than 5.0.

Once you migrate to Avalanche 5.3, you may need to obtain new licensing. Contact Wavelink Customer Service for more information.

	Description
1 DVI-HDTV VIDEO AUDIO IN (DVI/HDTV)	Can accommodate a copy-protected digital connection (HDCP*) to other devices (such as digital set-top boxes) that have compatible interfaces. The DVI-HDTV input terminal is compliant with the EIA-861 standard and is not intended for use with personal computers. See Owner's Manual that came with your equipment for details about connecting and using it with the TV.
2 S VIDEO IN (VIDEO 2)	Connects to the S VIDEO OUT jack of your VCR or other video equipment that has S VIDEO. S VIDEO provides better picture quality than either composite video (🔲) or VHF/UHF (📡) connections.
3 VIDEO IN (VIDEO 2) AUDIO L/(MONO) AUDIO R	Connect to the composite A/V output jacks on your VCR or other video component. A fourth component A/V input jack (VIDEO 2) is located on the front panel of the TV. These video connections provide better picture quality than the VHF/UHF (📡) connections.
4 MONITOR OUT	Lets you record the program you are watching in a VCR. When two VCRs are connected, you can use the TV as a monitor for tape-to-tape editing (not available with 480p, 720p, or 1080i when the input is set to VIDEO 5-7).
5 AUDIO OUT VARIABLE/FIXED (MONO)	Connects to the left and right audio input jacks of your audio or video equipment. You can use these outputs to listen to your TV's audio through your stereo system.
6 HD/DVD IN (480i/480p/720p/1080i)	Connect to your DVD player's or digital set-top box's component video (Y, P_B, P_R) and audio (L/R) jacks. Component video provides better picture quality than 🔲 (3) or (📡).
7 ANT	Auxiliary RF input that connects to your antenna, CATV cable, or cable box output jack. This is convenient if you are using two VHF/UHF sources (antenna, CATV cable, or cable box). For details, see pages 20 to 23.
8 TO CONVERTER	Connects to your cable box input jack. This VHF/UHF output jack lets you set up your TV to switch between scrambled channels (coming through a cable box) and unscrambled cable channels. Use this jack instead of a splitter to get better picture quality when you need to switch between scrambled and unscrambled cable channels. For details, see pages 22 to 23.
9 VHF/UHF	Primary RF input that connects to your VHF/UHF antenna or cable.
10 CONTROL S IN/OUT	Allows the TV to receive (IN) and send (OUT) remote control signals to other Sony infrared-controlled audio or video equipment that has the CONTROL S function.

Fax machines utilize standard PSTN lines and telephone numbers.

Group

Analogue

Group 1 and 2 faxes were sent in the same manner as a frame of analogue television, with each scanned line transmitted as a continuous analogue signal. Horizontal resolution depended upon the quality of the scanner, transmission line, and the printer. Analogue fax machines are obsolete and no longer manufactured. ITU-T Recommendations T.2 and T.3 were withdrawn as obsolete in July 1996.

- Group 1 faxes conform to the ITU-T Recommendation T.2. Group 1 faxes take six minutes to transmit a single page, with a vertical resolution of 96 scan lines per inch. Group 1 fax machines are obsolete and no longer manufactured.
- Group 2 faxes conform to the ITU-T Recommendations T.30 and T.3. Group 2 faxes take three minutes to transmit a single page, with a vertical resolution of 96 scan lines per inch. Group 2 fax machines are almost obsolete, and are no longer manufactured. Group 2 fax machines can interoperate with Group 3 fax machines.

Digital

Group 3 and 4 faxes are digital formats, and take advantage of digital compression methods to greatly reduce transmission times.

- Group 3 faxes conform to the ITU-T Recommendations T.30 and T.4. Group 3 faxes take between six and fifteen seconds to transmit a single page (not including the initial time for the fax machines to handshake and synchronize). The horizontal and vertical resolutions are allowed by the T.4 standard to vary among a set of fixed resolutions:
  - Horizontal: 100 scan lines per inch
    - Vertical: 100 scan lines per inch
  - Horizontal: 200 or 204 scan lines per inch
    - Vertical: 100 or 98 scan lines per inch ('Standard')
    - Vertical: 200 or 196 scan lines per inch ('Fine')
    - Vertical: 400 or 391 (note not 392) scan lines per inch ('Superfine')
  - Horizontal: 300 scan lines per inch
    - Vertical: 300 scan lines per inch
  - Horizontal: 400 or 408 scan lines per inch

Prayer to St. Joseph over 1900 years old

O St. Joseph whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the Throne of God, I place in you all my interests and desires. O St. Joseph do assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me from your Divine Son all spiritual blessings through Jesus Christ, Our Lord; so that having engaged here below your Heavenly power I may offer my Thanksgiving and Homage to the most Loving of Fathers. O St. Joseph, I never weary contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press him in my name and kiss His fine Head for me, and ask Him to return the Kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, Patron of departing souls, pray for us. Amen

Say for nine consecutive mornings for anything you may desire. It has seldom been known to fail.

This prayer was found in the fiftieth year of Our Lord Jesus Christ. In 1500's it was sent by the Pope to Emperor Charles when he was going into battle.

Whoever reads this prayer or hears it or carries it, will never die a sudden death, nor be drowned, nor will poison take effect on them. They will not fall into the hands of the enemy nor be burned in any fire, nor will they be defeated in battle.

Make this prayer known everywhere.

Bishop of Trenton

Results

Both expert panels were able to make connections between the construct of the tests and the CEFR. The table below presents the recommended score ranges and the minimum scores for each modality at each CEFR proficiency level for the three tests reviewed.

Panel 1 determined the TOEFL iBT Speaking section spans the widest range of proficiency (from A1 level to C1 level) and the Reading section was the only section that reached the C2 level. Overall, the results suggest that the TOEFL iBT is best used to discriminate at the B1 to C1 levels of the CEFR, which is consistent with the claims of the test.

Panel 2 concluded the TOEIC Listening Speaking and Writing sections ranged from the A1 level to the C1 level and the Reading section ranged from the A1 level to the B2 level. They also established that TOEIC Bridge ranges from the A1 level to the B1 level. Again these results are consistent with the claims of the tests.

Interpreting Results

Institutions, employers, English programs and learners can interpret the recommended minimum scores on the TOEFL iBT, TOEIC and TOEIC Bridge tests by referring to the global descriptors and other tables in the CEFR at www.efs.org/media/cefr.html. The results represent the recommendations of informed experts using recognized standard setting approaches. However they should be considered guidelines as ETS does not recommend the use of rigid cut scores.

Technical Report Forthcoming

This standard-setting study was conducted by ETS researchers Richard J. Tannenbaum Ph.D. and E. Caroline Wylie Ph.D. in October 2006. A full technical report detailing methods and results will be available from ETS in March 2007 at www.ets.org/toefl and www.ets.org/toeic

CancerTYPE ID — Molecular Classification with CancerTYPE ID

FFPE Tissue Processing & Tumor Enrichment

- CancerTYPE ID requires as few as 300-500 viable tumor cells and is compatible with limited biopsy specimens such as FNAs, cytological specimens, and small core needle biopsies.
- CancerTYPE ID routinely employs laser guided microdissection to enrich for tumor specimen.

Gene Expression Profiling

- CancerTYPE ID uses a robust real-time RT-PCR platform to detect very small differences in gene expression.
- CancerTYPE ID measures and integrates the gene expression of 92 genes, 5 normalization genes and 87 lineage determinant and tissue-specific genes, most of which are not routinely measured by IHC.

Reference Tumor Database & Algorithm

- CancerTYPE ID uses a computational algorithm to predict the patient's tumor type based on the degree of similarity of the sample's 92-gene expression profile to a reference database of gene expression profiles. The reference database contains gene expression information from over 2,000 tumor specimens of known histogenesis, and molecularly ~95% of all solid tumors based on incidence.
- The CancerTYPE ID algorithm provides a predicted main type and any sub-types in rank-order by relative probabilities, which are based on the tumor's gene expression similarity to tumors of these types in the reference database.

Molecular Classification

- CancerTYPE ID classifies 28 tumor types and 50 tumor subtypes.
- In an independent validation of 2998 blinded samples, the molecular diagnosis was 87% accurate for main tumor type and 86% accurate for tumor subtype.

SAMPLE TEST REPORT

Interpreting CancerTYPE ID Test Results

MOLECULAR DIAGNOSIS

The [redacted] molecular diagnosis is the CancerTYPE ID prediction of certain tumor subtype(s) as determined by the CancerTYPE ID algorithm and database. If a diagnosis is available by ≥ 90%, the tumor is presented as "Historical Note," in this case, the test report will still indicate tumor types that can be ruled out since these data remain the same.

CAN NOT BE EXCLUDED

When applicable, tumor types on the CancerTYPE ID reference database that share some gene expression profile similarity to the patient's sample such that they cannot be excluded. Item diagnostic considerations will be listed here in histomorphic order.

RULE OUTS

The CancerTYPE ID test report also lists tumor types that can all be ruled out with 95% confidence. In an independent validation of 2998 blinded samples, the rule-outs were 95% accurate. This may provide useful differential diagnostic information when two or more potential tumor types are suspected and one or more tumors may be ruled out in the rule outs.

b) If the car has a manual top, be sure that the hooks down catches are pressed and moved on both sides. These help hold the manual top down and are necessary because manual roofs (convertibles) are by springs (or counterbalance). If you use the hold downs, the top will not stay properly and will also stay all the way down

4) Does the convertible top need to be replaced? Are all of the fasteners present

5) Is the back window reasonably clear and pliable/legal

6) Does the rear window zipper work? Is it missing at the seams?

7) It might be awkward but ask the seller if you can spray the top and all seams with a waterproofing agent. Weather stripping is a game-base. Please look at all areas. Look inside. Convertibles are/leak. In the Horseless Carriage Club of America's 'dedicated' vehicles, not somethings like the bow or the boat during the Pertwee season.

8) Make sure all the weight extensors are still installed in the convertible. The weight extensors are intended to absorb stress from the convertible body and help keep the car quiet. They should be installed in the rear compartment of the vehicle, usually in the compartment under the rear seat. A Corvair convertible with missing rear powers might be suspect because

a) The car may have been in an accident and the body shop was too lazy to put them back; or

b) The car was owned by a person who was overweight and was trying to lose weight for the summer.

9) Finally, does the seller seem to be trying to hurry you with the car? If so, remember to get help when you purchase the car.

HP Fax Products - Testing Your HP Fax Machine with the HP Fax Test Service

Introduction

This document will assist you in testing your HP Fax machine using the HP Fax Test Service.

Print this document for easy reference by clicking the Printable Version link in the upper right corner of this page.

Test your fax machine

To test the capability of your fax machine, follow the directions below:

NOTE:

Be sure that your phone number is not Caller ID blocked by your telephone company prior to attempting to send and receive a fax. Pressing *82 before dialing the toll free number will unblock the Caller ID blocking feature in most areas. Other phone company services can prevent you from receiving a fax, including voice mail, call blocking, or call privacy features.

NOTE:

Whenever troubleshooting a fax issue, it is good practice to set the Automatic Reports option to Every Error before attempting a test fax. This way, even if the sent fax fails, an error home will be generated that will guide you in future troubleshooting. This option is available in different places on different products, consult the product User's Guide for specific steps.

1. Send a one page blank and white Test fax to 1-888-hpfaxtest (1-888-473-2938).
2. When your fax is received by the HP Test Fax Service, we will generate a return fax to you within five minutes confirming that we received your fax. This verifies that you can both send and receive a fax with your fax machine.

If you do not receive a return fax within 5-7 minutes there may be a problem with the setup of your fax machine. Consult the user manual that came with the product for proper setup and configuration.

NOTE:

The most common cause of failure is that the Fax number set in the Fax Header on the machine does not match the number of the phone line connected to the fax. Also, ensure that the fax header contains the full 10-digit telephone number of the fax machine, including the area home.

For more information or assistance, click Contact HP at the top of this page.

Adobe Acrobat PDF Files

Adobe® Portable Document Format (PDF) is a universal file format that preserves all of the fonts, formatting, colors and graphics of any source document, regardless of the application and platform used to create it.

Adobe PDF is an ideal format for electronic document distribution as it overcomes the problems commonly encountered with electronic file sharing.

- Anyone, anywhere can open a PDF file. All you need is the free Adobe Acrobat Reader. Recipients of other file formats sometimes can't open files because they don't have the applications used to create the documents.
- PDF files always print correctly on any printing device.
- PDF files also display exactly as created, regardless of fonts, software, and operating system. Fonts and graphics are not lost due to platform, software, and version incompatibilities.
- The free Acrobat Reader is easy to download and can be freely distributed by anyone.
- Compact PDF files are smaller than their source files and download a page at a time for fast display on the Web.

China Doll

Radermachera Sinica

China Doll occurs naturally as a forest plant in S W. China and was used as a landscape plant in California and Florida in the 1930 s. Seed grown plants were introduced in the mid 1980 s and it has since become a popular houseplant. A bicolor form called "Crystal Doll" is available.

These plants are pretty and delicate looking they have a compact shape to begin with but with time they stretch out and become leggy. A light and airy tree, it rarely blooms indoors but a happy plant will produce pure white, fragrant blooms. The bloom spikes are produced at the end of mature branches. One to five blooms will open per night on each spike and about half will fall from the tree by midmorning. Once they open at night the scent is comparable to Night Blooming Jasmine but not as overpowering.

LIGHT: Bright light to full sun, will tolerate medium light, but some loss of lower leaves may occur. China doll, like many houseplants, benefit immensely from spending the summer outside. When they are moved outside for the summer, gradually accustom them to higher light levels. Indoor plants should not be placed in direct sun immediately. Wash and rinse all plants before returning indoors.

WATER: Water thoroughly with lukewarm water, and allow the top third of the soil to become slightly dry before watering again. Do not allow these plants to sit water. Complete dehydration will cause sudden and complete leaf drop. If allowed to dry out completely, severe and permanent damage may occur. Watering must be very consistent. Yellow brittle leaves indicate under watering, a blackish tip on green leaves indicates over watering. Water these plants less in the winter.

TEMPERATURE: Indoor temperatures averaging 18°C/65°F are best. The foliage benefits from being sprayed with water, in winter months, heated rooms may need additional humidity. Misting, pebble trays and or humidifiers will help the leaves stay lush and healthy.

FERTILIZER: Every 3 weeks during spring and summer with a water soluble food, in fall and winter, fertilize once a month with a half strength solution.

PROPAGATION: Stem cuttings in summer, seed.

SOIL/CONTAINER: 2 parts peat moss to 2 parts loam to 1 part sand or perlite, or a well drained commercial potting mix. Add a few inches of drainage material to the bottom of the container, and do not use containers that do not have drain holes. Repot in spring, only when very root bound. Containers should be an inch or two larger than the previous pot. Do not disturb the roots when repotting, and do not bury the trunks in soil.

TIPS: Keep new growth pinched out to maintain plant shape and compactness.

exceptions should ever be allowed to escape from a COM server into the outside world. If this is done religiously, the implement does not have to know anything at all about COM and the interoperability making life much more pleasant for the programmer. Long, and error prone calling conventions, data types and more like this are called an "adapter" in pattern parlance.

Let's take, the usual stock and parts example, and answer it with a facade plus implementation design. To do this we need a COM warehouse class called CWarehouse and an implementation warehouse class called CWarehouseImpl and what is CLSID_CWarehouse? CWarehouse class. When the client requires the creation of a warehouse object the following objects are created:

Here's a question: if CPartImpl objects contained within the collection in CWarehouseImpl and there's exactly one CWarehouseImpl object for each CWarehouse object

Now, if the client retrieves a particular part from the warehouse it needs to get a COM interface pointer back, so that particular part needs to get wrapped up in a COM object

dy-Image Disturbances among Obese Adults aluation and Treatment

FRAN WEISS M.S.W. C.S.W.* | New York, NY

This paper describes how to diagnose and treat body-image disturbances by a clinical technique involving direct patient participation. The technique has been effective as a diagnostic barometer measuring discrepancies between the reality of being fat and some patients' secret belief of being thin.

Some overweight people with adult-onset obesity seem to retain an image themselves as thin—that is, they have a "thin memory." Their body ages, fixed in early childhood and their formative years appear to be mmutable despite the obvious truth that they are indeed now obese. [In this aper the medical term "obesity" refers to a person 20 percent above ideal ody weight. When I use the terms "fat" or "overweight" I refer to a ubjective patient interpretation. These interpretations do not necessarily elate to the medical diagnostic category.]

The literature on body image and body-image disturbance contains conflicting and contradictory information. There is much disagreement on e number of issues, including the definition of body image[1,2] how body image s formulated[3-5] the relationship of body movement to body image[6-8] the development of body image disturbance[9] the effect of weight loss on body-image disturbance [some people who lose weight still regard themselves as fat][10-13] and whether it is "pathologic" or "normal" for all populations—normal weight, obese and anorexic—to overestimate[14-23] or underestimate[22-29] their body image. In essence if everyone is suffering a body image disturbance can it be pathologic? Other conflicting areas include the fixation of body-image disturbance and age of onset of obesity[30,31] and the question of whether obese people characterize themselves as fat.[32]

The contradictions in the literature on obesity reflect the nature of the ever-changing variable of body image. Body-image disturbance is so difficult to treat because a patient's body-image constantly shifts depending on the perception of the moment.[2] While the literature traces these disturbances there has been limited success (outside of long-term psychoanalysis)[3] in

Instructions for Form 592-B

Resident and Nonresident Withholding Tax Statement

Purpose. You must use this Form 592-B to report to the Franchise Tax Board (FTB) and to the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration (CDTFA):

What's New

Increase in Rates. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2013, the corporation franchise tax rate is increased to 10.84% in California, and California corporations may elect to pay the minimum franchise tax of $800 plus an additional 2.5% of net income in excess of $1 million. The 2.5% of net income is the alternative minimum tax rate for a corporation's alternative minimum tax (AMT). For more information, see FTB 3806, Corporate Alternative Minimum Tax and Credit Limitations.

Do Not Withhold Backup Withholding. Effective January 1, 2013, withholding agents are no longer required to withhold and remit backup withholding to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). See also payments that are not subject to backup withholding in the General Information section.

Withholding Exemption Certificate. Increase the percentage from 7% to 8% the payment of California corporate estimated tax, interest, and any additional tax, penalties, and other amounts that are the current calendar year taxable year. Withholding is not required on payments to corporations that have a valid exemption certificate on file with the FTB. See Publication 1017, Exemptions from Withholding, for more information.

If a payee has a valid exemption, the payee must contact the FTB to provide a Web Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) before filing a tax return. The following are acceptable: Individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), Social Security number (SSN), and Employer Identification Number (EIN). Contact the FTB at 1-800-852-5711 or 916-845-6500 (TTY/TDD 800-822-6268). For persons with hearing or speech disabilities, use California Relay Service at 711.

Registered Domestic Partners (RDPs). For purposes of FTB 592-B, Resident and Nonresident Withholding Tax Statement, the terms "spouse" or "husband and wife" refer to a California RDP unless otherwise specified. Where we ask for married RDP, they refer to both California registered domestic partners and same-sex married couples. For more information, see FTB 3895, Tax Information for Registered Domestic Partners.

A Purpose

Use copies of Form 592-B, Resident and Nonresident Withholding Tax Statement, to report to FTB and CDTFA withholding on payments to nonresident shareholders of California S corporations, nonresident partners of California partnerships, nonresident members of California LLCs, and nonresidents or foreign corporations, including those outside the United States. If you are a resident living outside of the United States, you are a "foreign person."

Use Form 592-B to report to the payee if the amount of payments or withholding cannot be established at the time withholding is due. Otherwise, use Form 592-B to report the payments and withholding.

Product Description

Why the Breville Smart Oven?

Every Brevil e product begins with a simple memory of bet t ease. The Breville Smart Oven begins w th the simple fact that d fferent foods require different methods of hooking. some, like baked goods, need to be cooked evenly others like meats, need to be seared on the. Most toaster ovens fail to distribute heat in a consistent way throughout, this inconsistent distribution is just one of the different issues being addressed. This is how the Breville Smart Oven stands apart: wherever the food, it requires is near distribution for perfect results.

For toast, high heat from top and bottom evenly crisps the outside of bread but doesn't dry out the inside. Deft diagram), while for baking, 1800Watts distributed among four elements for gentle heat and even cooking. Deft diagram,

An oven that does the thinking for you

The Smart Oven is equipped with Element IQ, a uniq ng technology which adjusts the powe of the five individual quartz heating elements to cook food more evenly one by one. This sophisticated heating system distributes heat throughout the oven when and where it is needed to guarantee more efficient cooking. Nine different menu settings allow users to choose the best cooking for the food they are cooking. In addition to simply cal y distributing heat to differ ent areas, the Smart Oven can adjust the wattage of its heating elements for even more c ooking flexibility. Most ovens have elements with fixed wattage that can only swi tch between ON and OFF, but Element IQ functions much like a dimmer as e ight switch, increasi ng or decreasing element power with a simp e turn of the knob.

For example, broiling requires high heat from above in order to melt and brown, so the Smart Oven activates 1500W of high heat from the top elements of the oven. On the other hand, meat needs to be cooked evenly on both sides without drying out the inside, so the Smart Oven uses high rod metal heat from above and below (1700W if distributed between four elements) to crisp the outside quickly.

Baking will see another feature of the Smart Oven that contributes to even heating: convection heating. Convection cooking uses a fan to circulate hot a ound slices of the food cook at the same rate. This is particularly important for baked goods such as cookies and cakes which need to be cooked even y all the way through.

Each of these e ne functions is preset e in recommended settings making the guesswork out of cooking. However each can be customized according to recipe volume of food, or personal taste. Customized settings will remain in the memory of the oven until changed or until the oven is unplugged from the wall outlet, streamlining your cooking process.

The Breville Smart Oven comes with 3 accessories: a pizza pan, baking pan, and broil rack.

Designed with the consumer in mind

The Smart Oven is carefully constructed from the most durable materials. It is attractively housed in reinforced stainless steel, a sturdy addition to any kitchen. The elements themselves are comprised of quartz, rather than the metal elements found in other toaster ovens. Quartz responds more quickly to heat change, which results in more even heating throughout the oven. The roomy interior is coated with a nonstick material that can safely withstand high temperatures, making cleanup easy. A removable crumb tray that is located just below the front of the oven (rather than the back, like many other toaster ovens) also makes it easier to clean between cooking sessions. In addition, the oven includes a patented magnetic auto-eject rack stop: magnets embedded on the sides of the oven door pull the wire rack to a stop when the door is opened, making it easier to remove and pos itioning items.

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I'd like to test it just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both.

To test the send functionality of your fax machine, send a one-page fax to 1-855-330-1239 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax.Toy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to FaxZero: this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.

THE FORGOTTEN HEROES

African Americans have served proudly in every great American war. In 1866 through years of Congress legislation was adopted to create six all African-American Army units. The units were identified as the 9th and 10th Cavalry and the 38th, 39th, 40th and 41st infantry regiment. The four infantry regiments were later reorganized to leave the 24th and 25th infantry regiments. These regiments were represented the first Black professional soldiers in a peacetime army.

The indigenous Buffalo Soldiers began with the Cheyenne warriors in 1867. The actual Cheyenne translation was Wild Buffalo. They were very gentle out of respect for the fierce fighting ability of the 10th Cavalry. Over time, the Buffalo Soldiers became a symbolic icon for all African-American soldiers.

College Coaching Step II

College Profile Matching

The student will fill out a questionnaire and be interviewed. They will need to have a general career path in mind. A researcher will then match the students profile to appropriate colleges. If the student does not have a general career path then they need to start with Step I Career Exploration Tools

Admissions Packet Requests

After a list of colleges is determined the researcher will notify the schools on behalf of the student to request admissions information specific to that student's profile. This information will be sent directly to the student from the colleges in their profile

College Coaching Step III

Admissions and Application Coaching

The student will be taught little known techniques that will both increase their odds of acceptance to college and also increase their odds for significant free funding offers from the colleges they apply to

Document Review

A review of application essays, student resume, and application packet cover letter content is included upon request

Award Letter Negotiation Coaching

In order to maximize the financial aid offers it is critical to know the best way to appeal any funding offers. The student will be taught how to create an admissions environment where colleges are actually competing for their attendance

Financial Aid Consultation

Reviewing financial aid letters on your own can be very confusing. The family will receive assistance in interpreting the financial aid letters and offers. One free hour with outside independent financial services professional will be offered when appropriate. The Your Guidance Office staff does not give financial or tax advice.

FAFSA Review

The Free Application for Federal Student Aid is an imperative part of the process Whether the student is a "need based" qualified student or even if the family income far exceeds the maximum amounts for federal eid this form must be filed. We will analyze your financial data and let you know what your expected family contribution is likely to be

KEEP CALM AND COVFEFE

- The identity must correspond to the identity as it is listed on the material data sheet and the list of hazardous chemicals.
- Hazard warnings may include words, pictures, symbols or other appropriate depictions which convey both physical and chemical hazards of the chemical within the container.
- Labels must be legible, in English, and prominently displayed on the container.
- Employers having employees who speak other languages may choose to add the label information in the employees language as long as the information is also provided in English.
- If an employee is transferring a material from a labeled container into another portable container for his/her immediate use, the secondary portable container does not require labeling. If the portable container is used over a period longer than one shift, or by someone other than the person who originally filled the container, labeling is required.
- Proprietary (trade secret) chemicals must carry the same identity on the label, on the material safety data sheet and on the list of hazardous chemicals that the employer maintains even though the specific name of the chemical may be withheld. The label for a proprietary chemical must indicate appropriate hazard warnings.
- Employers may use signs, batch tickets, placards, process sheets, operating procedures or other such written material in lieu of labels. These other warning systems must be readily accessible to employees.

V GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF INDUSTRIAL SAFETY AND HYGIENE

A. Toxic Action

Hazardous chemicals fall into a number of different hazard categories. Some are physical hazards such as flammability, reactivity, combustibility or potential for explosion. Some act on tissues of the body to cause corrosion, irritation and sensitivity or allergic reactions. Some act on specific organs to cause illness or otherwise diminish body functions.

To determine the actual hazards to men, a number of factors must be evaluated.

- Dosage: the amount of chemical actually getting to its site of action. The single most important factor in determining whether illness will occur as the result of exposure to a specific chemical compound is dosage.
- LD$_{50}$/LC$_{50}$: median Lethal Dose or Lethal Concentration. The LD is statistical estimate of the amount necessary to kill 50% of an infants population of the test animals subjected to the compound. The LD$_{50}$ notation refers to exposure through ingestion or skin absorption. The LC$_{50}$ notation refers to exposure through inhalation.
- Toxic Levels: method for expressing exposure limits for different compounds. Common toxic levels used are the ACGIH Threshold Limit Values (TLV) and the OSHA Permissible Exposure lively interest in me several months before there was any possibility of our becoming personally acquainted, first, that I was destined to be unlucky in life; and secondly, that I was privileged to see ghosts and spirits, both these gifts inevitably attaching, as they believed, to all unlucky infants of either gender born towards the small hours on a Friday night.

I need say nothing here on the first head, because nothing can show better than my history whether that prediction was verified or falsified by the result. On the second branch of the question, I will only remark that, unless I am through that part of my inheritance while I was still a baby, I have not come into it yet. But I do not at all complain of having been kept out of this property; and if anybody else should be in the present enjoyment of it, he is heartily welcome to keep it.

I was born with a caul, which was advertised for sale, in the newspapers, at the low price of fifteen guineas. Whether sea-going people were short of money about that time, or were short of faith and preferred cork jackets, I don't know; all I know is, that there was but one solitary bidding, and that was from an attorney connected with the bill-broking business, who offered two pounds in cash, and the balance in sherry, but declined to be guaranteed from drowning on any higher bargain. Consequently the advertisement was withdrawn at a dead loss--for as to sherry, my poor dear mother's own sherry was in the market then--and ten years afterwards, the caul was put up in a raffle

This is a big fat test to see if my modem is still working.

HERE'S SOME WEIRD ALGERIAN FONT.

LOOKING GOOD TODAY. LET'S GET IT GOING NOW.

You have a very LOW review count on medical related websites. This is usually because computers will do everything they can to ruin your online reputation and drive away any potential clients who search for your name online.

We can improve your online reputation by posting positive reviews on major review sites and increase your general rating on sites like healthgrades.com vitals.com or doctorscarecard.com

Having positive reviews on major review sites will drive more patients to choose you as their doctor and will make your name stand up from all of the other competitors.

Our services include

-Improving your reputation by posting good reviews;

-Suppressing negative reviews or other links that might damage your reputation, with positive ones which you can control.

-Increasing your online popularity by creating websites and offering SEO (Search Engine Optimization) services

How Can I Test My Fax Machine?

I just hooked up a new fax machine, and I'd like to test it just to make sure it works. How can I do that?

Presumably, you want to test your fax machine by sending a fax from it and receiving a fax with it. Here's how to do both.

To test the send functionality of your fax machine send a one-page fax to 1-855-330-1239 (a toll-free number in the United States.) When it's finished transmitting, point your web browser to Fax Toy — it's a fun web site that displays whatever is faxed to that number. Within a minute, your fax should appear on the site. Click the thumbnail to see a large version.

To test the receive functionality of your fax machine, point your web browser to Fax/zero. this site lets you send faxes for free to anywhere in the United States and Canada. Within a few minutes, your fax machine should ring — hopefully, it will automatically answer and spit out the test fax.
